

Elevate20

APPLICATION

Elevate20 promises to be extraordinarily powerful.

A bit more about the process, so you can fully understand the experience. You'll be in the hot seat each meeting to present an issue for discussion and brainstorming. Each member at each meeting will have this opportunity.

You will first frame your request as a question. We call this the Ultimate Question. You have 5 minutes for your presentation. Then 15 minutes of peer brainstorming to follow. When you become a member, you'll be provided with the framework of how to prepare for your presentation. How to actively listen. How to give to others.

Do you have a clear vision of what you want to accomplish for your business?
